Dearest darling,

I'm still in Kassel, but I hope to finish up tomorrow, and get back to Lich. I should have a few letters when I get back there.

Went to the show again tonite, and saw, "The Affairs of Susan." It was really good. Last nite and tonite I saw two of the best shows I've seen in a long time.

Sweetie my letters must all sound almost exactly alike to you. There never seems to a whole lot to write about, and lately all I can think about is how nice it's going to be to come home to you. But please forgive me darling, all I want to think about is you. It won't be too much longer, and we can quit the letter writing. We'll probably talk a leg off each other honey.

I love you so darling. It seems as tho' I love you so much I couldn't love you anymore, and yet each day I love you more and more. You're just the dearest and sweetest and darlingest and bestest wife in all the world.

I'm enclosing millions of hugs and kisses
and all my love.

Your own,
Jack
